

Technical Quick Guides

MPS Installation

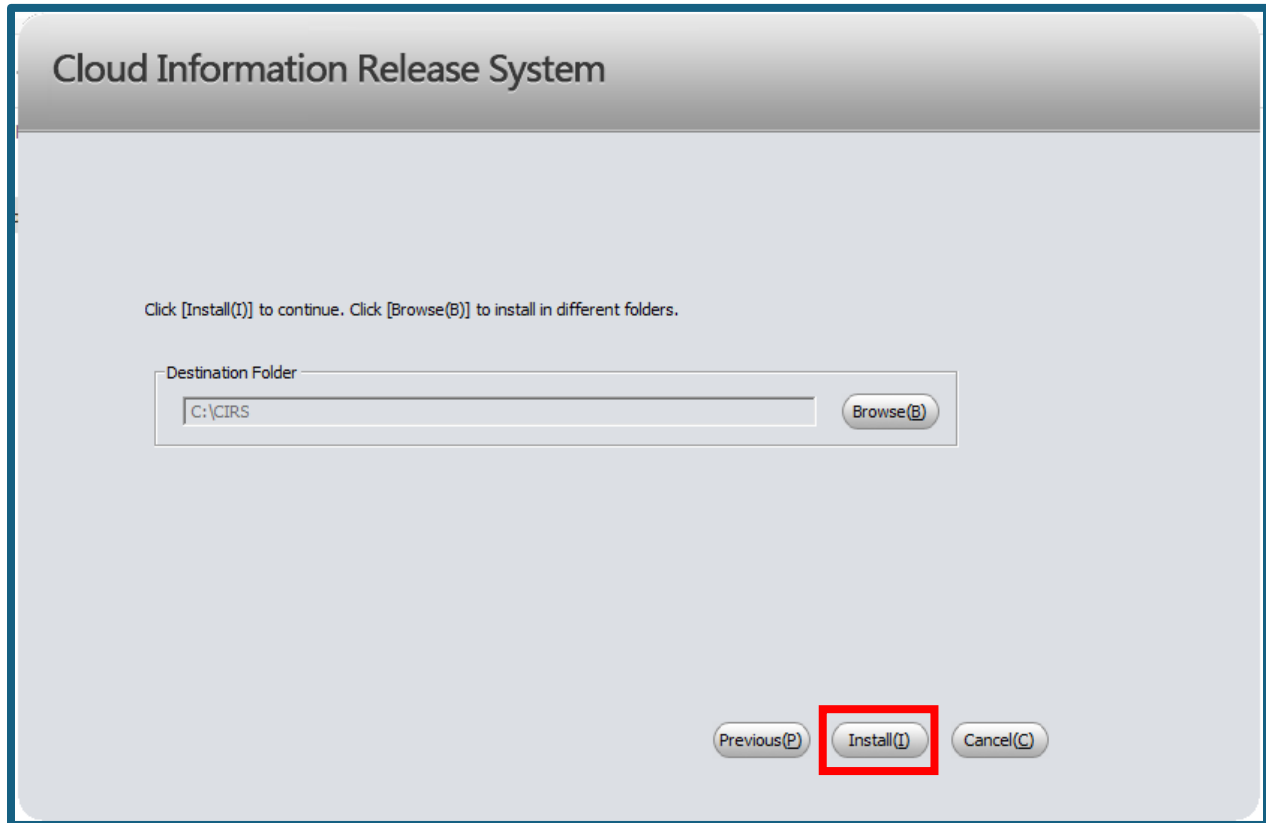

Double-click the installation package to run the program and click the Next button.

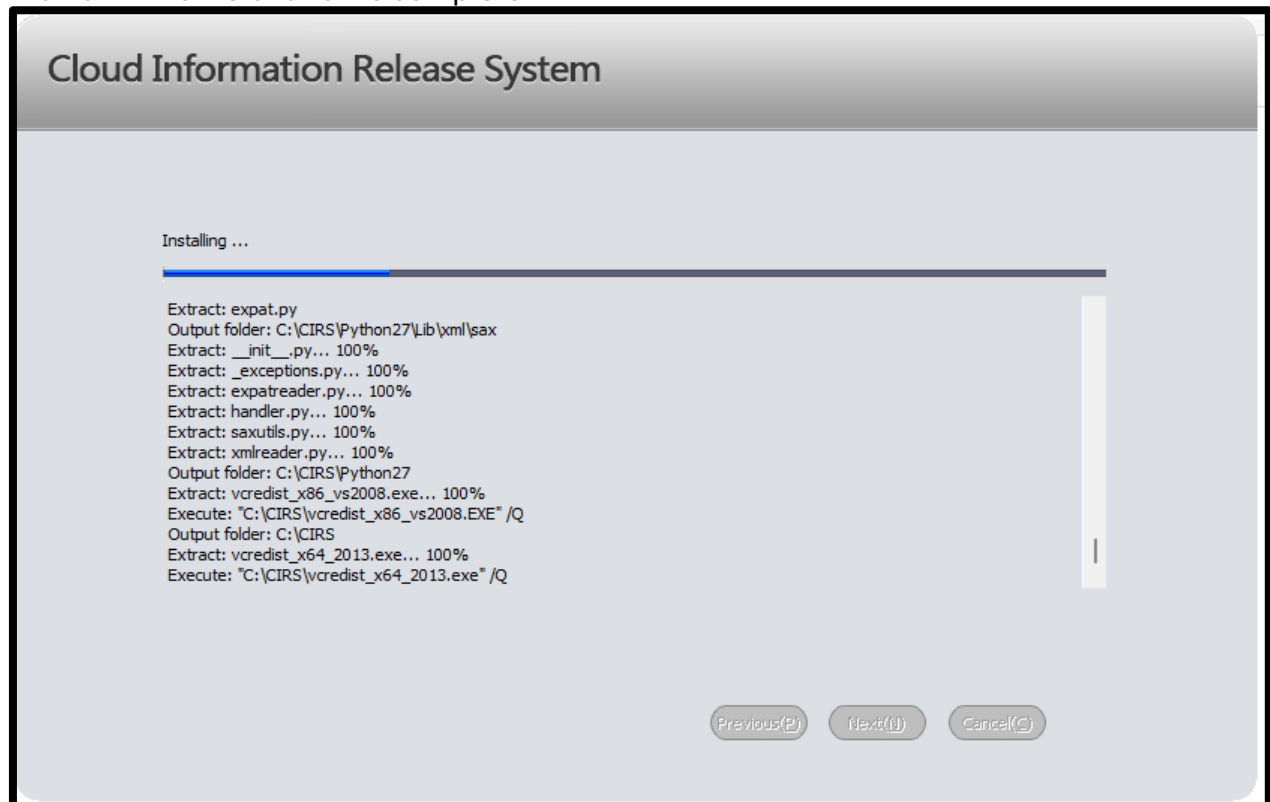

Select Accept and then click the Next button

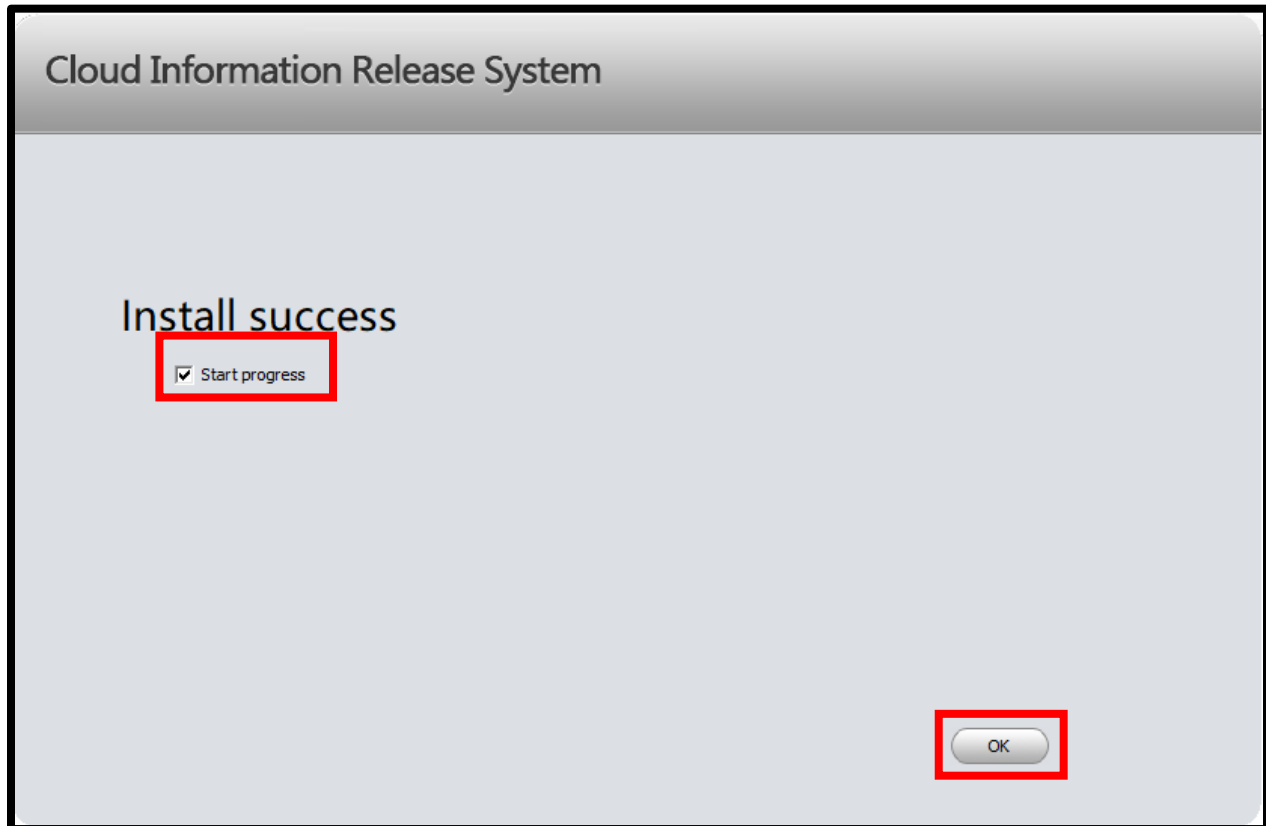

Click Browse to install the program on different folder or click the Install button

Wait until the installation is complete

After the installation is complete you can click ok to start the MPS configuration

After clicking the Ok button, there are some pop-ups menu will appear click the Allow button for all pop-up menus.